Syllabus

This course traces the development of Western Civilization from the beginnings of our species (c. 150,000 years ago) to the death of Louis XIV (AD 1715). It concentrates on two themes particular to Western Civilization: God(s) Act(s) in History, and Man is the Measure of All Things. These two themes differentiate Western Civilization from the other three great World Civilizations.

This course is structured around a series of lectures with a text book and outside readings meant to illustrate further what is developed in class. The lectures provide the basis for your ability to do well on the in-class quizzes and in-class essay examinations.

My home page is http://crab.rutgers.edu/~verbrugg/ which under courses for 510:101 has this syllabus. Sakai, whose URL is: https://sakai.rutgers.edu/portal also has a copy of our syllabus. At Sakai Rutgers, when you log in using your Rutgers user name and password, our course should appear along with any other courses you are enrolled in, which also use Sakai. Click on our course (WC 50:510:101:01 F13), and a wealth of information becomes available to you under headings on the left. Please, feel free to explore. This site is absolutely essential for success in this course. At the end of the syllabus is a description of our Sakai site.

My office is 200 in 429 Cooper where the Department of History and the Department of Philosophy and Religion are located; my office phone number is 225-6075; my internet e-mail address is Verbrugg@camden.rutgers.edu (please, put “Western Civilization” in the heading to alert me). I will be available for questions or consultation each class day (MWF) during Office Hours from 7:15 to 8:45 AM. If these times are not convenient, arrangements can be made for a mutually agreed upon time for meeting.

Basis for the Determination of Final Grade:
There will be 16 Electronic Multiple Choice Tests, 7 Map Exercises, 6 Quizzes, and 4 Essay Examinations. A number grade will be given for each. The average of the 16 Electronic Multiple Choice Tests will count as 20% of the final grade, the average of the 6 Quizzes will count as 25% of the final grade, the average of the four Essay Examinations will count as 50% of the final grade, class and the average of the 7 Map Exercises will count as the remaining 5%. The resulting figure will have the following letter grade correspondence:

100 - 90 = A
89 - 80 = B
79 - 70 = C
69 - 60 = D
59 - 0 = F

Class Policies:
Please feel free to use whatever means you want to help you in class: laptops for note-taking, recordings of lectures, or just plain note taking. The Power Point presentations in class are NOT available on Sakai.

Your in-class quizzes and in-class essays are to be your own work exclusively. Notes or prewritten work to be copied during in-class quizzes and in-class essays are not allowed. During in-class quizzes and essays, you should not use your phone or computer, nor should you disrupt the class by leaving and returning to your seat. Please, take care of bathroom necessities before or after class.

I expect the reading assignments to be done for the class day they are assigned. A good rule of thumb is that for every hour of class, two hours of preparation are necessary.

The Electronic Multiple Choice Tests SHOULD BE completed by the date listed on the syllabus. If you look at the dates on Sakai for these tests, the due dates are different, as I want you to have available these electronic multiple-choice tests to help you with our in-class quizzes and essay tests. Stated policy is that late Map Exercises will not be accepted and that there are NO make-up Essay Examinations or Quizzes. This policy is easily vitiated (Please, look up the word vitiated, if you don’t know what I mean here.), if you are going to have to miss turning a Map Exercise in on time or taking a Quiz or Essay Examination when scheduled because of absolutely unavoidable circumstances.Courtesy and I, however, demand that you notify me beforehand or in an unforeseen and unforeseeable situation as soon as possible afterwards (NOT just the next time you happen to be in class) in person, by phone, or by e-mail so that arrangements can be made to make up the map assignment, quiz, or essay examination you unavoidably missed.

You are at Home.
Under Announcements will appear any communications we need to make.
Resources contain the following:

Essay Examination Questions – These are the exact essay questions which will appear on our in-class essay examinations. Please look at them throughout the course of the class, as what I say in class will have a direct bearing on your ability to answer these questions. During the actual essay examination (you will have to answer two of these questions – my choice – see sample essay question test), the helpful questions in blue will NOT appear on the test.

Map Exercises, Definitions – Maps 1 to 7 is a Word File containing the map exercises. Download the file, print out the map exercises, and turn each one in when it is due.
Definitions Offered is an htm file (ignore all the other files, which are either .jpg or .gif files and form part of Definitions Offered.htm), which contains terms and definitions I go over in class. You should familiarize yourself with these.

Readings – This folder contains all of the outside-class readings I would like you to do during the course. In addition to those files, whose names contain the content of the readings, there is a file called READINGS.HTM, which contains essential questions about the individual readings. It would be foolish to ignore this file.

Sample Quiz, Chapter Identifications – Please look at Sample Quiz.htm, as it contains not only an example of what the first in-class quiz will look like, but is an example of the form that all the in-class quizzes will have. Chapter Identifications contains a list of the identifications from which all the identifications of the in-class quizzes will come.

Syllabus – It contains a copy of this syllabus in both html format and Word format.

Tests and Quizzes contains the electronic Multiple Choice Tests you are to take at your own time and choosing. Please note that you can take each of these Multiple Choice Tests as many times as you’d like, but only the highest score you achieve will be recorded.

Gradebook – Here you can see the scores of your electronic Multiple Choice Tests. It does NOT contain the scores of your in-class quizzes, essay examinations, and maps. All that material will be returned to you, so you can see how you are doing.

Site Info – Here there is basic information about our site.
Help – Clicking on this opens a separate window with help on using Sakai. It does not offer any help with our course.
The full syllabus is available on both my web site: http://crab.rutgers.edu/~verbrugg/ under courses for 510:101 and on Sakai: https://sakai.rutgers.portal. At Sakai Rutgers, the full syllabus is available in two forms, as a web document and in a .pdf file. IT IS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL THAT YOU PRINT OUT A COPY OF THE FULL SYLLABUS.

My office is 200 in 429 Cooper where the History Department and the Department of Philosophy and Religion are located; my office phone number is 225-6075; my internet e-mail address is Verbrugg@camden.rutgers.edu (please, put “Western Civilization” in the heading to alert me). I will be available for questions or consultation each class day from 7:15 to 8:45 AM. If these times are not convenient, arrangements can be made for a mutually agreed upon time for meeting.

Please, if you have any questions, no matter how minor you might consider them, ASK. Ask either in class, or in an e-mail, or come to my office. But ASK!

If you find yourself having trouble with this course, the time to come and see me is in September and October. DO NOT WAIT until November.
